Everything is born from the need to create emotions ...

Breaths, sighs that the silver salts of the film, preserve for the simple fact that 'their sole purpose to exist...

In all this apparent paradox between the emotion and chemistry, born my photos.

Believe me, however, that what prompted me to create this project is the simple desire to inspire ... all the rest does not matter...

I was born in Ardenza, Livorno, Tuscany, in March 1970... if you want to know more, please e-mail me...
